> Lawrenceville mills go on strike. If the men in these mills go out they will seek the active co-operation of the employees of the Beaver Falls, Bessemer and Ke, stone Bridge Company's mills. The latter have been exhibiting signs of uneasiness and could, it is thought, be easily induced to join in a sympathetic strike. Other mill men in all parts of the State could then be depended

The mills at Lawrenceville, which is a suburb of Pittsburg, give employment to bewest of Pittsburg in the town of Beaver Falls, employ about 3,500 men. At the Bessemer Mills, which are attuated between the towns of Braddock and Bessemer, across the Monongahela River from Homestead and about nine miles east of Pittaburg, about 5,000 men are employed. The Keystone Bridge Company's works are in Pittsburg and give employment to about 1,500 men. These are the largest concerns likely to be affected by a sympathetic strike.

A committee was appointed at the massmeeting to wait upon Mr. Frick and notity him of the action taken. One of his spice, nowever, had previously carried the news to him, and to gain time he left his office before the Committee arrived. Last evening he was before the Congressional Investigating Committee and could not be reached. It is expected that he will spend most of his time to-day with that Comm The Committee finally notified P. R. Du superintendent for Mr. Carnegie of the Law-
